THORNTON JUNIOR COLLEGE
HARVEY, ILLINOIS

VISITOR
W-12 L-0
COACH R.ANDERSON
THE TEACHING OF SECONDARY MATHEMATICS
BUTLER and WREN

To the Students of Thornton Junior College:

This year at Thornton Junior College can be most important for you. It should be a time for setting definite goals and for making decisions for future vocations and professions. It is a time to be used in achieving scholarship and in developing a philosophy of life. Worthwhile and lasting friendships will be built.

The stature and reputation of a college are built and maintained not just by the faculty but also by the students. The many fine graduates of Thornton Junior College have given it recognition as a college of excellence. The faculty is constantly revising and expanding the program to improve the opportunities for its students. You can take pride in having a part in this excellence.

We hope your achievements here and in your future endeavors will be such that the college can take pride in your accomplishments and that you can look back with pleasure to your attendance at Thornton Junior College.

DEAN OF WOMEN
Miss Adelaide Childs

This is Miss Child's second year as Dean of Women at Thornton Junior College. She serves a needed function, that of making it easier for the freshmen women to adjust to the change from high school to college life. She is equally interested in assisting the sophomore women with their problems, for all the girls can have problems which may well require the assistance of an interested faculty member.

DEAN OF MEN
Mr. Byron Kee

Last year Mr. Kee served as the freshmen class counselor. In this capacity he gained valuable experience in handling the problems of the students. He also served as a co-sponsor of the Men's Club and this year he is continuing as the sponsor. It is evident that Mr. Kee is well prepared for his first year as the Dean of Men, for he not only knows the administrative functions of his position but is also regarded with respect by the students.

STUDENT SENATE

First Row: Carl Lindstrom, Marsha Swanson, Norm Mangano, Cynthia Poli

This is the first year for the Student Senate. It is composed of the presidents and vice-presidents of the following groups: Coed Club, Men's Club, freshmen class, sophomore class, three elected from the sophomore class, and one representative from the college publications.

In addition to sponsoring the Gym-Jams, the Mixers, the Homecoming Dance, the Boulderino, and the Prom, the Student Senate also has the responsibility of distributing the student activity fees to the various school activities.

Sponsors for the Student Senate are Mrs. Helen G. Fesler and Mr. Raymond C. Sherman. In addition to assisting the officers of the Senate, they also serve to coordinate the actions of the Senate with those of the administration and the faculty.

MEN'S CLUB OFFICERS

Second Row: Wayne Krass, Pete Wasilkoff, Dennis Miller, Neal Franklin
First Row: Dave Drechsel, Norm Mangano, Carl Lindstrom

This year the Men's Club is under the direction of Mr. Byron Kee, who is also the Dean of Men. In addition to sponsoring the Mother-Son Banquet and the Sleighbell Ball, the Men's Club also provides Smokers, at which the members can see a good movie as well as eat a more than satisfying number of hamburgers.

By sponsoring the Smokers, the Men's Club enables students, who normally would not meet, to get together. These Smokers also serve to break those long and monotonous hours of study, for they are held on week nights.

The officers are elected at the close of their freshman year. In the fall of the next school year, after the officers have become sophomores, the freshmen board members are elected. The officers for the current year are Norm Mangano, president; Carl Lindstrom, vice-president; and James Gawlik, secretary-treasurer.

Achieving a better understanding of the culture of France is one of the goals of the French Club. This is best accomplished by stimulating an increased usage of the language. Another method is by exposing the students to pictures as well as printed material from France. Through these media members are brought closer to the realization that France, its language, and its people are an important part of the world we live in.

The Club is sponsored by Miss Florence Wunderlich and is open to those students taking first or second year French. This year's officers are Ron Pritchard, president; Ursula Olling, vice-president; Sandy Johnson, sec.-treasurer; and Bob Dahl, sergeant-at-arms.

The German Club, Der Deutsch Verein, is sponsored by Miss Jeannette Hills. Its purpose is to acquaint students with the German language and customs. It is a chance for all students of German to combine fun and enjoyment with a study of German. It provides these students with an opportunity to use the German that they have learned in classes. One of the highlights of the year is their participation in the annual Christmas party of the foreign language clubs. This year they put on a skit featuring an angel choir and its instructor, Beethoven. Current officers are Sharon Oldaker, president; Irv Wilkins, vice-president; Pat Christ, secretary; and Dieter Meister, treasurer.

The mastery of Spanish is a significant accomplishment and is made even more so by our proximity to South American countries, whose official language is Spanish. For the most part the Spanish Club is composed of those students currently taking first or second year Spanish and who have enough interest to join this Club as well as to attend classes.

The sponsor of the Spanish Club is Miss Florence Wunderlich who encourages her students to join the Club and further their exposure to the culture and customs of Spain. Miss Wunderlich is assisted in this function by Elaine Kavelaras, president; Frank Nuessel, vice-president; Mary Ann Johnson, secretary-treasurer; and Bill Horn, sergeant-at-arms.

THE COURIER

The Courier is the school newspaper which majestically appears in the Union Room every other Friday. The Courier is also available in the library and office. It is in this paper, which is sponsored by Mr. John Stanfield, that we can find out the latest news as to school events and social activities.

This year's Courier staff, which is headed by George Waters, had an extra difficulty in meeting their deadlines - lack of staff members. Even with this handicap the Courier staff has done a fine job of turning out a school newspaper.

THE CALDRON

Yes, we the Caldron staff, under the direction of Mr. Roy Swanberg, are responsible for what you behold. It is our attempt to record what happened during the past school year. There are many things which are not in this book because of the lack of space but just the same there is much in this book of interest, some of which may be new to you.

LAMBDA EPSILON

Lambda Epsilon, the Thornton Junior College Scholastic Honor Society, was organized in the spring of 1939 for the purpose of encouraging scholarship by according recognition to those whose scholastic achievements are of a high order. Members are elected into the society purely on the basis of their scholarship, and no weight is given to popularity, leadership, or extra curricular activities. Students are elected as soon as they have proved their scholarship. This may occur either in the freshman or sophomore year or after the student's graduation, in the case of alumni members.

The motto of Lambda Epsilon, "Lux Esto," or "Let there be light," is indicative of the enlightenment and knowledge upon which civilization and progress depend. It is toward this objective that the Honor Society is dedicated.

This year's officers are Carl Lindstrom, president; Judith Lambert, vice-president; and Orrell G. Kauffman, secretary-treasurer.

This was the second year for the Education Club, which is under the sponsorship of Miss Helen Fesler. The Education Club is a local chapter of the Student Education Association, a subdivision of the National Education Association. The organization is composed of those students who are planning to go into the field of teaching. The goals of the club are to perpetuate an interest in teaching, to help its members to realize their goals, and to point the way to a job in their field of interest.

The club members who were elected to hold office for the past year were Pat Duttell, president; Janet Franknecht, vice-president; Marilyn Lau, secretary; and John Inman, treasurer.

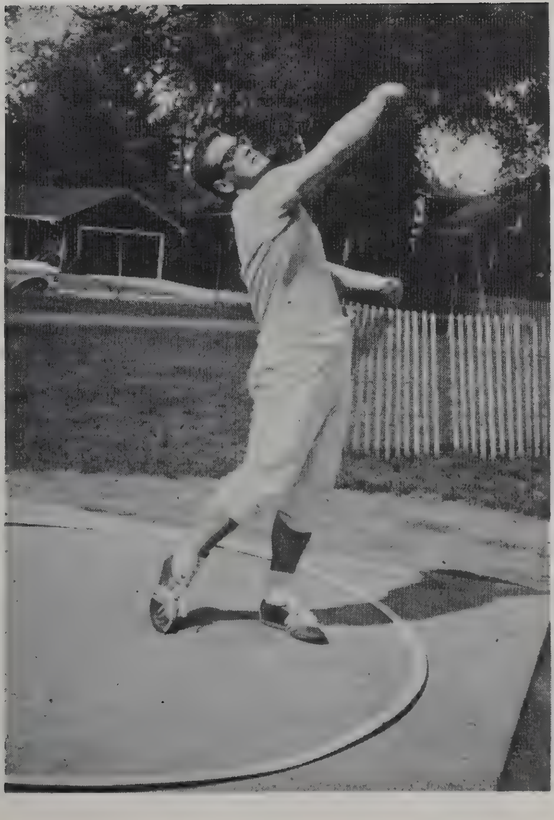
The Lettermen's Club, which was formed in 1952, is composed of those students who have won a letter in either of their two years at Thornton Junior College. Most of the club members won their letters while on either the basketball or football team; but there are also letter winners from baseball, tennis, and track.

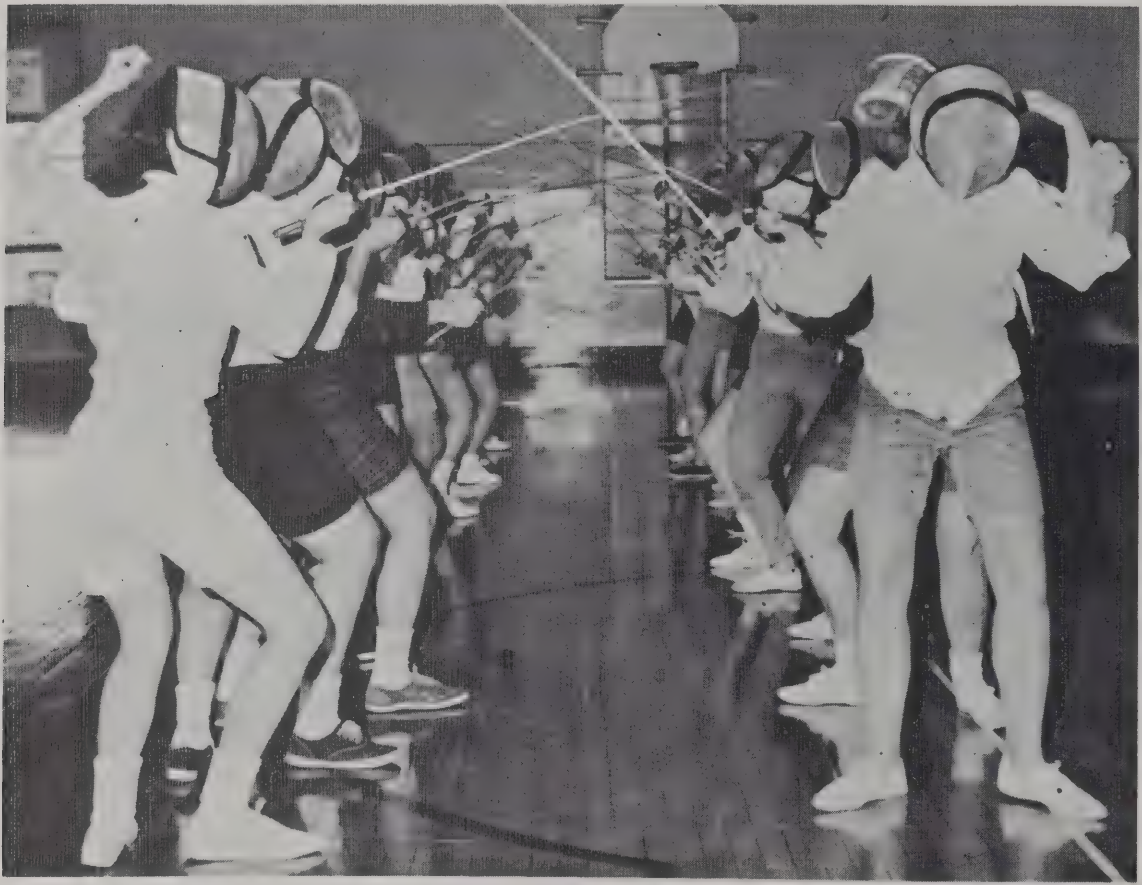
During the school year the Lettermen's Club sponsors the after game dances, which are held in the gym after home basketball games, and also sponsors the annual banquet which is held in the spring for members of the club. The sponsor is Mr. Peter Schloss, who has held that position since the club was formed. This year's officers are Dan Fox, President; Henry DeBose, Vice-President; Kathy Hagen, Secretary; and Nancy Godin, Treasurer.

FIELD AND TRACK

Field and track sports place emphasis upon endurance, although skill is often necessary. These sports are rather broad in their scope, for they include races, cross-country, discus, and high jumping just to mention a few. This year's field and track sports were coached by Pete Schloss, who appears in the above picture.



PHYSICAL EDUCATION



BOULDERINO

Boulderino is the name given to the annual tug of war between the freshmen and sophomore men. This chilly affair takes place in the spring when the waters of Thornton creek, which runs between the opponents, are ice cold.

Each year a record of the winning team is recorded on the trophy, a grave stone, which is kept in the Union Room.

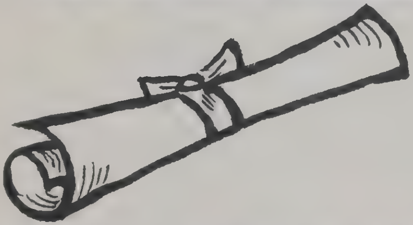
At Thornton Jr. College there are two honor rolls, the High Honor Roll for students with an "A" average and the Honor Roll for the students with a "B" average. The exact point average for each honor is indicated above it.

To have their name on either honor roll is the greatest scholastic achievement for students at Thornton Junior College. The honor roll is a goal that students work for throughout their school year.



GRADUATION 1962

FRESHMAN CLASS

Mary Ann Johnson, secretary-treasurer of the freshman class; Wayne Marley, president of the freshman class.

This year's Freshman Class has well endured the change from high school to college. This "change" is one that requires that the students adapt themselves to spending more time at their studies. Few freshman classes have adjusted so rapidly, for it is evident by their serious expressions and their "long" record of study that most of the freshman have realized the importance of a college education.

Those students whose names are listed on the honor rolls in this book have achieved their positions on the basis of their fall semester grades. To be on one of the honor rolls is a great honor, but even greater is the honor of those students whose names appear on the high honor roll, for they have earned the recognition accorded to those with an "A" average.

ELECTION COMMITTEE

The student elections at Thornton Junior College are conducted by the Student Election Commission, composed of students in the Junior College. The Commission is sponsored by Miss Marie Weis, political science instructor.

To be eligible to vote in elections a student must be registered either as a freshman or as a sophomore voter. The members of the commission have the responsibility of conducting the registration. The members of the commission also act as judges during the election and have the duty of counting the ballots immediately following the close of the election. They must do this in the presence of the sponsor of the election commission or in the presence of the sponsor of the student council. Should a question arise involving the validity of a ballot, the final decision is made by the sponsor present. Ballots are kept for a period of seven days following the election and then destroyed. This enables a recount within the seven day period.

We the students at Thornton Junior College owe our thanks to the work done by the commission to keep the elections at Thornton fair and honest.

THE LIBRARY

Miss Doris A. Halverson (pictured on the right) is the librarian at Thornton Junior College. She has the responsibility of insuring the students at Thornton a well organized and up-to-date library. There is a complete selection of reference books as well as 153 different magazines for which the library subscribes. This material long with the large collection of novels gives the ambitious student facilities for reading and relaxation.

Miss Halverson is assisted by Mrs. Gertrude Ring as well as by various student helpers who work as library assistants.

NIGHT SCHOOL

The Evening Division of Thornton Junior College has a larger enrollment than the day school, with 127 students entered in technical courses and 954 in the various academic courses. The Evening School also offers courses of special interest as well as trade extension courses, giving a total enrollment of 1797.

The Evening School is under the supervision of Mr. Arthur Stejskal, Director, and Mr. Melvin DeGraff, assistant Director. Together they face the job of organizing classes and schedules for the large number of students in the Evening Division.

FIRE

On Friday, November 30th, there was a fire at Thornton Junior College. The fire, which was preceded by a minor explosion at 5:50 p.m., took place in the chemistry storeroom between rooms 236 and 237. It damaged all the chemicals which had just been listed in a 30-page inventory. An estimated $10,000 loss was suffered in the storeroom and the adjoining classrooms.

It is not often that there is even a minor fire at Thornton, and it was fortunate that this fire was limited to the chemistry storeroom. The most apparent effect of the fire to the students and teachers was the odor caused by the burning chemicals, which filled the halls in that part of the building for weeks.

In the spring or fall, or whenever the weather permits, the Harvey police may decide to crack down on the students or other unfortunates who park their cars in a no-parking zone, or for more than an hour in one of the numerous one-hour zones.

The police officer checks the marked tires every hour for violaters. The students rush about erasing the chalk marks or move their cars every 55 minutes. An observer might be tempted to ask, "What is this - a contest between the cops and the students?" Well, it's a little game we play.

CONVOCATION

At the first convocation of the year, Scott Morrison, conversation pianist, pictured on this page, entertained the student body with his presentation. Mr. Morrison used makeup to create the illusion that the composer himself was appearing. During another convocation Dr. Bergen Evans said that "merely knowing is not enough. We must doubt; we must question; we must be willing to stand for these things which we believe, in face of great adversity."

At our last convocation Mr. Sidney Lens spoke to us about the "African Volcano, its cause and potential.

DAD-DAUGHTER BANQUET

On February 13, at Cavallini's in Midlothian, Alpha Sorority presented "The King and I," this year's Father-Daughter Banquet. One hundred eighty-seven dads and daughters were served roast beef or fried chicken dinners in a royal atmosphere.

Donna Lovrich, entertainment chairman for the banquèt, presented a "Queen for a Day" skit with "Jack Bail" (Carol Vanderwoude) as master of ceremonies and a special guest appearance by "Mith Miller" (Donna Lovrich).

Other chairmen for the banquet included Marcia Davis, general chairman; Judy Peerbolte, programs; Verna Watson and Barbara Schurr, publicity; and Sandy Karow, decorations.

QUEEN FOR A DAY

HOMECOMING DANCE

The Thornton Junior College annual Homecoming dance was held away from the school this year. On November 1st, the Governor's Mansion in Hazel Crest, Illinois, saw approximately 125 couples dance to the music of Ed Johnson and the Mayfairs. The highlight of the evening came when last year's royalty, Sharon Scholz Marley and Milt Marley, crowned Nancy Godin and Jim Russo king and queen of the Homecoming week-end, "Kick-Off 1962."

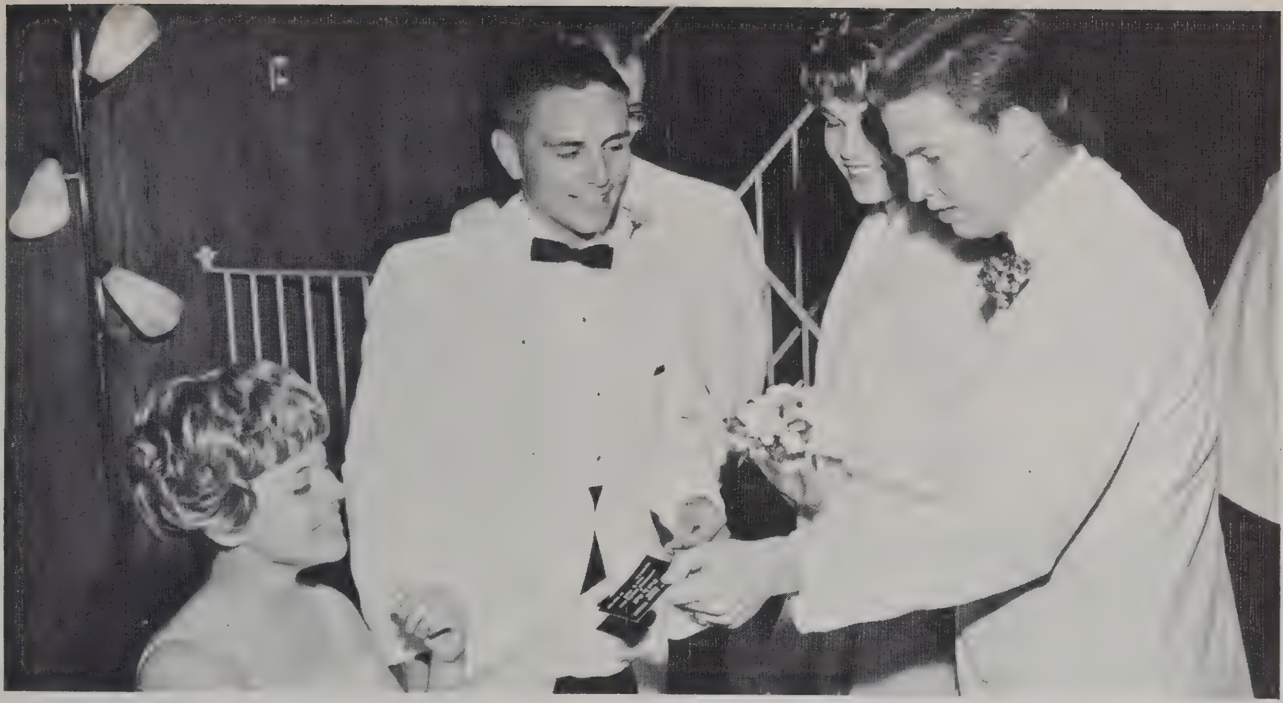
SLEIGHBELL BALL

The scene of this year's annual "Sleighbell Ball," was the Crystal Ballroom of the Shoreland Hotel, held on December 15th from 8:30 p.m. to 11:30 p.m.

Norm Mangano, Men's Club President, was general chairman for this annual event, which has always been considered one of the top social events of the pre-Christmas social whirl at Thornton Junior College. Ed Johnson and the Mayfairs, who supplied the music for the Homecoming dance, were also on hand for the evening of dancing and gaiety.

THE STAGGETTE

This year's annual Staggette dance, "Cotillion Candlelight," was held at the Silver Lake country club on the night of March 30, 1963. The enchanted couples danced to the music of the Ralph Bergger band. As tradition held true, the Staggette court and coranation proved to be the highlight of the evening as Gerry Zboreak, mistress of ceremonies, held the crowd tense before revealing the Maid of Honor and the Staggette Sweetheart. Kathy Hathaway, the 1962 Sweetheart, had the honor of giving the rose to Donna Lovrich who was chosen Maid of Honor and the crown and bouquet of roses to Cynthia Poli, Staggette Sweetheart for 1963. It was truly a night to remember.



THE PROM

Last year's prom was held at the Steger-Lincolnshire country club. The theme of the prom was "C'est la Nuit," ("This is the Night") . The prom committee was under the direction of Larry Kaiser. Other active members were Nancy Godin, John Kwasny, and Mary Szacik, just to mention a few.

Lane Emery and his band provided the music for this enchanting affair. After the dance most of the couples went to a restaurant or night club; and to do things up right they went to the Dunes, bright and early that same morning.
